were put on about a week before that date. He also drove the last electric car.

Shenandoah County.

Sale of the Personal Property of John Morgan, March 7, 1832.

John Morgan, Jr. was the Administrator. The Bidders were:

James M. M. Beale,

John Morgan,

Maurice Morgan,

Elizabeth Morgan, the Widow.

The following will give some idea of the real estate owned by John Morgan, in Shenandoah County, Virginia:

- - - - -

Deed Book M. P. 459.

July 13, 1801, John and Elizabeth Morgan deed to William Ball a tract on the north side of the North River of Shenandoah, being part of a tract of land which was formerly granted to Benjamin Allen by Patent dated the 29th of June, 1739 (This was the first Morgan deed in Shenandoah County).

Deed Book M. p. 697.

Sept. 16, 1801, John Pennywit, for $125. deeds to John Morgan a tract lying on both sides of the main road leading from Woodstock to New Market, near Mill Creek. (This land lay just at the foot of the high, or high ground, just as one leaves Mt. Jackson, going South. This was part of the home farm of John Morgan and lay on both sides of Mill Creek, which crossed the main road, Route 11, at that point).

This land was formerly granted by deed from Thomas, Lord Fairfax, August 2, 1750, to John Pennywit, Sr. since deceased, who conveyed the same (10 acres) to the said John Pennywit, Jr.

Deed Book N. P. 39.

April 12, 1802. George and Jane Lafferty, and Matthias and Elizabeth Suleer, of the County of Berkley, for pounds 39, deed to John Morgan, one acre, adjoining the Town of New Market

Beginning at the upper end of New Market in the middle of the main road, (now Route 11), and up the same ten poles. This seemed to be a town lot in New Market, ten poles square.

Deed Book N. P. 60.

October 21, 1800, William and Thomas Prather, of Montgomery County, Maryland, deed to Jonas Morgan, a tract in Shenandoah County.

Deed Book N. P. 293.

July 11, 1808, John and Elizabeth Morgan sold the one acre lot at New Market, to Henry Sulzer, of Rockingham County.

Deed Book N. P. 450.

March 16, 1804, Joseph and Margaret Hawkins, his wife, for 300 pounds, deed to John Morgan 100 acres on the westerly side of, the North River of Shenandoah.

Deed Book N. P. 452.

March 18, 1804, Joseph and Margaret Hawkins, his wife, deeded a tract to John Morgan, on the north-westerly side of the North River, of Shenandoah, &c.

Deed Bk O. P. 101.

Dec. 10, 1804. John and Elizabeth Morgan, for 350 pounds, deed to Isaac Samuels, a tract on the northwardly side of the North River of Shenandoah, it being the same tract which was conveyed ~~to~~ by Joseph Hawkins, Sr., and Lydia, his wife to the said Joseph Hawkins, Jr., Dec. 31, 1799, and by Joseph and Margaret Hawkins to John Morgan March 13 1804, 100 acres.

Deed Book O. P. 225.

June 10, 1805, John and Elizabeth Pennywit, for $4833.31, deed a tract on Mill Creek, part of the land granted by deed, from the late Thomas, Lord Fairfax, August 2, 1750, 309 acres to John Pennywit, Sr., since deceased, who in his life time conveyed the same to the said John Pennywit (Junior).

(I failed to get the name of the Grantee in this deed, but believe it was to Michael Sigler, because he put in a clause prohibiting Sigler from building a mill or saw mill, under any pretense, unless necessity required it, and then should not be permitted to grind more than 50 bushels in any one year).

Deed Book 5. P. 203.

July 7, 1806, Reuben and Anne Moore, for $2,000, deed to John Morgan a tract on the East side of Mill Creek, and on the eastward side of the main road (Route 11) leading from Woodstock to New Market, it being part of the land which Joseph Miller sold to said Reuben Moore, and part of which was conveyed to Joseph Miller, by Aaron and Dorothy Allen, and part conveyed to Joseph Miller by John Pennywit, one acre.

Deed Book 9. P. 106.

Aug. 9, 1806, William and Elizabeth Steenberg, for $500.00 deed to John Morgan - - - - - This land joined Reuben Moore, and Sigler, 100 acres (NOTE: The description is not clearly given, but the names show that this land was on Mill Creek.

Deed Book R. P. 499.

Sept. 9, 1810, John and Rebeckah Pennywit, for $500.00 deed to John Morgan 100 acres, deeded to said John Pennywit by his father July 2, 1804. Beginning at a corner of Michael Sigler and John Morgan, and up Mill Creek along with Sigler's Mill trough, and corners on Morgan's 10 acres "Lott", 100 acres. Mr. Jordan hauled ties, from Milton, with his own team, to lay the track, for the horse cars of Huntington, our first street cars. He had not only the distinction of driving the first horse cars here, but also the first electric cars in 1893, Mrs. Jordan places the date 1893, by the fact, that they were married May 22, 1893, and the first electric cars were put on, about a week before that date. He also drove the last electric car.

Dear Mr. Lambert:

Am enclosing another sister-in-law family data. She is the oldest child of my husband's family, the daughter of J.W.Long and wife, Sarah Catherine. Will soon get the other one. I do not have time to see all the Long families around here; doubt if many go to the trouble to work it out.

No, I did not say the Bible records were some other papers of deeds, &c. of the early settlers, and the transfer of land from one to another.

Yes, the Richmond State Library.

The Bible is so large, and so very valuable to me, so worn, and already part of pages fallen loose. I can't run the risk of sending it, nor do I want the leaves torn from it.

You got all copies from the Bible, I think, of the Long family. There are a few other things of no particular interest except our own, immediate family.

When I get with more of the Longs I may try to see if they will write up their line.

Respt.

(Signed) Mrs. W. M. Long.

THE HANDLEYS.

The Handley family, at an early date, were of English descent. The name is found in a number of places in England, in Cheshire, Derbyshire, Staffordshire, and Wpcestershire, England. The spelling was variously given as Hanley, Handley, Hanly, &c. The family bore arms, in the County of Nottingham. The family quite early migrated into Ireland, between the 11th and 15th centuries A.D. Here the name appears in Connaught and Roscommon, with the celtic prefix of O', as O'Hanley or O'Handley. In Pennsylvania and Maryland records, the name is spelled variously as above.

John and William Handley came with the Scotch-Irish emigration, to Augusta County, in 1740 and 1750. They were probably brothers. This John Handley settled on the "Eowpasture", and his sons, John Handley, Jr. and William Handley came to Greenbrier County in 1780.

William Handley, the pioneer, settled in what is now Botetourt County, on Staunton River (now Roanoke River) in 1746, and his sons became residents of Botetourt County, in what is now Monroe County, previous to 1772. According to family records, William died in 1776. This wife's name was probably Margaret, but the date of her death is not known. Their son, Samuel Handley (Draper manuscripts) stated that there were four children: John, Margaret, Nancy, and Samuel (himself). However, the family tradition is that there were four older sons--Archibald, William, Jr. James, and Alexander.

This tradition is believed to be correct, because the records of Botetourt County show their names closely associated together, and they came down in the family. A Court record in Augusta County shows clearly that John Handley, of Monroe County, was a son of William Handley and that they had lately come into Chester County, Pa. and were weavers, and lived in Nantmill Township, and that they had "lately" come in from Ireland. Records in Chester County prove that they were living there some time in the 1750s. (I have a lady investigating that further), and hope to receive a final report soon). Another record shows that they lived in northern Delaware, which at an early date, was a part of Southeastern Pennsylvania, and adjoined Chester County.

3v

John Handley, son of William Handley, the pioneer, came into Monroe County as early as 1772, and lived on the head of Indian Creek, but did not purchase land there until 1774. He died June 3, 1811, at 65 years of age; hence, was born about 1746. He married Mary Harrison in 1768, but she outlived him several years, and spent her latter days with one of her sons. Handley, on a farm near the International Nickel Plant, and is buried at Guyandotte in the old cemetery, at the end of the Fifth Avenue Bridge. She was born in 1745, and died Dec. 4, 1829, at 84.

The Handley farm, or Handley Fort, as it was known, was located a few miles from the present town of Union. Archibald Handley, brother of John Handley, also purchased land near John Handley. The Handley Fort was a fortified house, the home of John Handley, a place for the neighbors to gather for protection against Indian raids. It was of logs, and built previous to 1774. The site can be easily located by rose bushes which have gone wild. It stood less than 100 yards from an old building which was formerly used as a County Infirmary; but was abandoned a few years ago for lack of "patronage".

I. John Handley served as a Lieutenant under General George Rogers Clark in his Illinois campaign of 1781-1782. He had previously served in the Dunmore war, and was in the Battle of Point Pleasant in 1774 (Thwaites and Kellogg--Dunmore's war, P. 408) He was a member of Capt. John Lewis' company. John Handley served as a Lieutenant in the Company of Capt. John Vortress, Jefferson Co., Va. under General George Rogers Clark. He enlisted in Greenbrier County, Va. and was a son of William Handley.

According to the will of John Handley, recorded in Monroe Co., Va. now West Virginia, William, John, Margaret, Sarah, Nancy, James Alexander, Betsey, Archibald, Samuel and Isaac. The executors of the Estate were Archibald Handley and John Handley, Jr. The personal property was listed at $1094.37, a considerable amount for those times. The children of John and Mary Handley were:

I. John Handley, Jr.

Born 1710; died between 1821 and 1829. His marriage is recorded in Greenbrier County. He married Pessus Elder May 13, 1794, by Rev. Jacob Cook. He moved to Putnam Co. and settled at old Culloden.

II. William Handley

Born 1769; died 1840. Married Margaret Henderson Nov. 10, 1788, in Greenbrier County.

35
III. Margaret Handley.

Married Major Samuel Clark March 20, 1786.

She was born in 1772, , and died after 1811.

IV. Alex Handley

Born 1774. There is a grave marked "Alex. Handley" in the cemetery at Union; but it may be a grandson.

V. Samuel Handley

Born 1776(?) Died 1851. Married Sarah W. Harmon, April 10, 1797, in Greenbrier Co. (Mrs. Victoria Thornburg Vickers is one of their descendants). (See Summer's Annals of S.W. Va. P. 511).

VI. James Handley

Born 1778; died October 29, 1890, at 62. Married Polly Burks (d. 1764), a widow, Dec. 12, 1812, in Monroe County. Both buried at Green Hill cemetery. They had no children.

VII. Archibald Handley

Born 1780. Died 1856. Married Susan Kincaid Oct. 19, 1801.

VIII. Nancy Handley

Born 178. Married Thomas Akins April 5, 1804, in Monroe County.

~~XXXX~~

IX. Sarah Handley

Born 1784; died _____. Married Humphries Keyes, of Jefferson and Botetourt Counties, April 21, 1803. Recorded in Monroe County.

34

X. Elizabeth Handley ("Betsey")

Born 1786. Married Andrew Walker Jan. 10, 1784, in Monroe County. Tradition says they were the last of the Handleys to own Hundley's Fort. They sold it, and moved to Summers County.

XI. Isaac Handley

Born 1788. Died Married Kate Wylie in 1809 and moved to Kanawha County. Here he raised a large family who were prominent in the Kanawha Valley. This family came to Cabell County, and moved above the Nickel Plant. Mary Harrison Handley died at their home; and, as previously stated, was buried at Guyandotte in the old cemetery at the Guyandotte side of the Fifth Avenue Bridge. The story of this family is given elsewhere.

Many Handleys and Handley descendants are yet found in Greenbrier County, but they are extinct in Monroe County. John Handley, Jr. came to the immediate vicinity of the present town of Culloden, in Putnam County. The date of his death, at this time, is not known; but since he lived at or very near the site of the old town of Culloden, (The main highway has caused a new town to spring up) it is very probable that the graves of this family may be found, in one of the old cemeteries in that community.

The marriage records of Greenbrier county show that John Handley, Jr. married Pressis Elder May 13, 1799. There was more than one John Handley; hence, this raised a question of whether this was the son of John Handley, Sr. of Monroe County. A deed in Putnam County was signed by John and Pressus Handley. An early deed was made to him by John Handley, for land in Monroe County, and a check of this deed proved that he was the same John Handley who was in Putnam County.

That this John Handley died previous to June 5, 1829, is definitely shown by a deed, in Kanawha County bearing that date.

This Deed, Deek Book "G", P. 407, shows the heirs of John and Pressis Handley, as follows:

Thomas E. Handley married Olivia Hampton,
Dorcas Handley, married John Craig,
Erasmus S Handley, married Catherine Gardner,
John M. Handley, married Sarah J. _____
Mary Handley,
Augustus A. Handley, married Minerva McGinnis.
Samuel Handley

I have information on but three of these: Thomas E. Handley, Erasmus S. Handley, and Augusta A. Handley. I will take them up in order:

Thomas E. Handley, married Olivia Hampton. Their children were:

I. William Washington Handley, married Susan Riggs, of near Cleveland, Ohio, and had two daughters, Normie Handley and Rookie Handley. Normie married Thomas Miller, of Ohio and had two children, Tom and Hampton Miller.

William Washington Handley went to New York and became a prominent banker, at No. 60, Broadway. Tom and Hampton Handley lived at Englewood, N.J.

II. George T. Handley, married Alice O'Dell. They lived at Allentown, California, and had several daughters, four of whom are living:

Sadie also is dead.

III. Minerva Handley

Married Captain Charles Halloway, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati. They moved to Brightwater, New York (Long Island), and there died.

IV. Amanda Handley

Married Charles Miller, of Barboyrsville. She died in childbirth.

V. Dallas -- Killed in the civil war.

VI. Polk -- Served in the Confederate army with Rev. John Carter, of near Milton. Mr. Carter said he saw him last at about the time of the battle. He was never heard from.

VII. Napoleon--died in infancy. He was a twin of Andrew J. Handley.

Family of A.J. Handley.

They had five sons and three daughters:

I. Minnie Lee Handley

Married William Gerlach, son of John Gerlach. They had two children: Pansy Gerlach, who married Daniel J. Thomas, of Huntington, and Dahlia Gerlach, who married a Mr. Fisher.

II. William Washington Handley

Married Helen McComas, daughter of James McComas, of Ranger, Lincoln County. They separated, leaving a son, Morris Handley.

III. Thomas Handley

39

Married Susie Field, sister of Albert Field, former Mayor of Milton. They lived about a mile south of Milton. One son--Russell Handley.

IV. John Handley married

Lived in Huntington. Both are dead. They had several children, one of whom, Alma Handley, married Charles Main and may be living in Ironton, Ohio.

V. Frances (Fanny) Handley

Born June 1881.

Married Maddox April 3, 1942, at Catlettsburg, Ky. He was a son of Charles Maddox. They had no children.

VI. Robert Handley

Married Hannah Whittington, of Guyandotte.

Both died, leaving no children.

VII. Faudon Handley died single, at 21.

VIII Andrew J. Handley

Married Elizabeth Harshbarger. She was a daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Billie) Blake Harshbarger, who lived near the Memorial Hospital, of Milton.

Thomas E. Handley was a slave owner. He lived just north of Culloden, on the north side of the old turnpike, and had a large store on the opposite side of the road. His slave quarters were near his home. William Love married a Hampton, and schooled A.J. Handley after the civil war.

Erasmus S. Handley A.

Married Catherine Gardner Aug. 15, 1930

in Kanawha County, Va., now W. Va.

The Cabell County census of 1850 gives the following:

Erasmus S. Handley	43
Catherine A. (Gardner)	34
Melvina N.	19,
Virtinia P.	15,
John S.	13,
Patrick H.	10,
Augustus A.	8,
Benj. F.	6,
Monroe	1,

Others may have been born later. The 1860 and 1870 census would show this.

Records in Mason County show that John S. Handley was born May 10, 1837, and that his wife, Oretha (Shiveley) Handley was born March 5, 1849. They were married Nov. 12, 1865, at Mason City, or was it Mason County?, W. Va. Oretha Shiveley was a daughter of P.B. and Mary Shiveley.

John S. Handley made his will Feb. 12, 1902, and named his wife, Oretha Shiveley, and three children:

Mary E. Morgan,

Emma Bagley, and

John W. Handley, deceased, whose wife was

Grace and two children:

Ramona Handley

J.H.M. Handley.

41

Augustus A. Handley, son of Erasmus S. Handley, was born about 1842, and was living in Huntington as late as 1913, possibly, later. He was a prominent business man here, and he and his wife, Lillie, handled much real estate. They lived on the south side of Sixth Avenue, above the old George Floding home. They seem to have had no children. Augustus A. and Lillie were married in County.

Mary E. Handley married William S. Morgan April 10, 1898.

The census of 1850 gives

John M. Hanly	42, Merchant	$5,000.00
Sarah,	38
William W.	15.

In Mason County, Will Book 1, P. 296, John M. Hanly made a will dated October, 1869. This will was lost or hidden, and was later contested, but was declared valid by the Court, on April 15, 1874. At that time his wife was Mary E. Handley. She was made Executrix, and was to have the entire estate during her natural life; after which it was to descend to John S. Handley (or was it John S. Morgan) From this, it is evident that John M. Hanly had a son, William W. Handley, who died; and his father, John M. Handley, married second Mary E.

but I found no record of either marriage. They could have been married in Gallipolis, or elsewhere.

There were two Augustus A. Hanleys. The first one was a son of John Handley, Jr. who married Pressis

4v

Elder. This Augustus A. Handley married Minerva McGinnis, of the Guyandotte section. They lived near Hurricane, where they had a "house of entertainment" and probably kept a store. They are said to have lived near Winfield at a later date. He was a brother to Erastus S. Handley and Augustus A. Handley, of Huntington.

Recently I found among my papers, copies of several long letters written by Perdival S. Drown to me in 1913. He was then more than ninety years old, and was living in California. He grew up on Beech Fork, near Bowen, and was rather prominent. I believe he was, at one time a Deputy Sheriff, and he had a wife acquaintance. He remembered "Gus" Handley, and said he was "a mighty fine man". The census of 1850 showed that Mr. Handley at that time, had but two children.

In order to make this clear:

William Handley probably married Margaret _____ and "lately came from Ireland," according to a record in Augusta County, found in a "Fee Book" dated 1767. They first came to Chester Co., Pennsylvania, then to Augusta County, Va.

William Handley had a son, John Handley, who married Mary Harrison, in 1768, and was a Revolutionary soldier.

John and Mary (Harrison) Handley had a son, John Handley, Jr., who married Pressis Elder, in Kanawha County, in 1794.

John and Pressis (Elder) Handley had a son,

Erastus S. Handley, who married Mary A. Gardner.

Erastus S. and Catherine A. (Gardner) Handley had a son, John S. Handley, who married Oretha (Shiveley) Handley. They had a daughter, Mary E. Handly, who married William S. Morgan. They were the parents of J. Hanley Morgan.

-PAUL LONG'S FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR RECORD-

One of the ^{notable} world's contributions to the early Virginia history is the "Hopewell Friends' History, 1734-1934." This was in Frederick County, of which Winchester is the county seat. These Friends held their meetings in Opequon, but they did not buy their lands of the Indians, although advised to do so by Thomas Chalkley, a well known Quaker minister, of Philadelphia. He wrote to these Friends at the monthly meeting at Opequon and Shenandoah, May 21st, 1738, and advised them to be ~~xx~~ very careful to buy their lands of the Indians, and show their friend-ship to them in other ways. I now quote from this book:

"As the early minutes of Hopewell monthly meeting no longer exist, it is impossible to know what action was taken in regard to Chalkley's letter. In any event, it does not appear that his advice was followed. For a score of years the settlements grew. Friends, as well as others, advanced farther into the wilderness, and here was no trouble with the Indians. But after Braddock's disastrous defeat in 1755 the French encouraged their Indian allies to make incursions into the valley: and the inhabitants were terrified and thrown into the greatest confusion by their attacks, as they cut off the outlying settlers, massacred their families, and burned their houses."

Evidence of the state of affairs is found in the Frederick County Court Records:

"At a council of war held for regulating the militia of Frederick County ~~Court Martial~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ in order to take such steps as shall be thought most expedient in the present critical conjuncture.

Proposals having been sent the several Captains of the Militia signed by the Commanding Officer of Militia, & dated the 7th day of April, 1756 "To get what volunteers they could encourage to go in search of the Indian enemy who are daily ravaging our Frontier & Committing their cruelties on the Inhabitants; and the aforesaid Captains, being met together and finding the number of men insufficient to go out against the Indians At one time, even the Town of Winchester was almost abandoned by its panic stricken citizens.

Washington gives a graphic picture of the situation, in one of his to Governor Dinwiddie:

Winchester, 22 April, 1756.

"Sir,

"This incloses several letters, and the Minutes of a Council of War, which was held upon the receipt of them.

Your Honor may see to what unhappy straights the disturbed inhabitants and myself are reduced. I am too little acquainted, Sir, with pathetic language to attempt a description of the people's distresses, though I have a generous soul, sensible of wrongs, and swelling for redress. But what can I do? I see their situation, know their danger, and participate their sufferings, without having it in my power to give them further relief than uncertain promises. I short, I see inevitable destruction in so clear a light, that, unless vigorous measures are taken by the Assembly, and speedy assistance sent from below, the poor inhabitants that are now in forts must unavoidable fall, while the remainder are flying before the barbarous foe. In fine, the melancholy situation of the people, the little prospect of assistance, the gross and scandalous abuses cast upon the officers in general, which is reflecting upon me, in particular, for suffering misconduct of such extraordinary kinds; and the distant prospect, if any, of gaining honor and reputation in the service,-- cause me to lament the hour that gave me a Commission, and would induce me at any other time than this, of imminent danger, to resign, without one hesitating moment, a command from which I never expect to reap either honor or benefit; but, on the contrary, have almost an absolute certainty of incurring displeasure below, while the murder of helpless families may be laid to my account here.

"The supplicating tears of the women and moving petitions of the men, melt me into such deadly sorrow, that I solemnly declare that if I know my own ~~weak~~ mind, I could offer myself a willing sacrifice to the butchering enemy, provided that would contribute to the people's ease."

(Sparks, Vol. 2; pp 143-4, Ed. 1834)

In the midst of this destruction, Friends seem to have been almost miraculously preserved. Some of them were driven from their homes, but none were killed, and only one house was burned. Information to this effect is found in the minutes and papers of the Meeting for Sufferings, of Philadelphia yearly meetings. This standing committee of influential Friends was organized at about this time to give aid to any members of the society who might suffer loss on account of the war, or their refusal to take part in military operations."

The Friends, on Sept. 5, 1757, wrote to the society and gave details of the losses of their people. The society immediately sent £ 50 in money and requested further details, which were sent.

(It was not certainly known just what Indians inhabited this section; but it is probable that both the Shawnees and the Tuscaroras were among the earliest inhabitants of that section. An Indian trail ran north through the Valley, from the Carolinas and Kentucky---F.B.L.)

John Handley served as a Lieutenant in the Company of Capt. John Vortress, Jefferson, Co., Virginia, under Gen.
Geo. Rogers Clark. He enlisted in Greenbrier Co., Va., and was a son of William Handley.

John Handley, recorded in Monroe
County, Virginia, now West Virginia,
William, John, Margaret, Sarah,
Nancy, James Alexander, Betsy,

The executors of the estate were Archibald Handley, and John Handley Jr. The personal property was listed at $1094.37, a consid erable amount for those times.

The Children of John and Mary Handley were:

and moved to Kanawha
County.

Here he raised a large family who were prominent in the Kanawha Valley. This family came to Cabell County, and lived above the Nickel Plant.
Mary Harrison Handley died at ~~there~~ their home and, as previously stated, was buried at Guyandotte, in the old Cemetery, at the Guyandotte side of the Fifth Avenue Bridge.
The story of this family is given elsewhere.

Many Handleys and Handley descendants are yet found in Greenbrier County, but they are extinct in Monroe Co. John Handley Jr.
came to the immediate vicinity of the present town of Culloden, in Putnam County.

The date of his death, at this time is not known, but since he lived, at or very near the ^{site of the} old town of Culloden, (the main highway has caused a new town to spring up) it is very probable that the graves of this family may be found, in one of the old cemeteries, in that community.

The marriage records of Greenbrier County show that John Handley Jr. married ~~Preassus~~ ^{Pressis} Elder, May 13, 1794. There was more than one John Handley, hence, this raised a question of whether this one was the son of John Handley Sr., of Monroe County. A deed in Putnam County was signed by John and Preassus Handley. An early deed was made to him by John Handley, for land, in Monroe County, and a check of this deed proved that he was the same John Handley who was in Putnam County.

That this John Handley died previous to June 5, 1829, is definitely shown, by a deed, in Kanawha County, bearing that date.

This deed (Herd Bk. G. p. 407), shows the heirs of John and ^{Pressis}~~Praessius~~ Handley, as follows:

Records in Mason County, show that John S. Handley was born
May 10, 1837, and that his wife
Oretta (Shiveley) Handley was born
March 5, 1849. They were married Nov. 12, 1865, at Mason City (or was it Mason County?), W. Va.

Oretta Shiveley was a daughter of P. B. and Mary Shiveley.

John S. Handley made his will
Feb. 12, 1902, and named his wife,
Oretta Shiveley, and three children:

Mary E. Morgan

Emma Bagley and

John W. Handley, deceased, whose wife was Grace —
and two children:

Ramona Handley

J. H. M. Handley

Augustus A. Handley, son of Erasmus S. Handley was born about 1842, and was living in Huntington as late as 1913, possibly later.

He was a prominent business man here, and he and his wife, Lillie, handled much real estate. They lived on the south side of Sixth Avenue, above the old George Flooding house. They seem to have had no children. Augustus A. and Lillie were married in County, ✓

Mary E. Handley married William S. Morgan, April 10, 1898.

The Census of 1850, gives

John M. Hanly 42 Merchant $5000

Sarah 36

William W. 15

In Mason County, Will Book 1 p. 296, John M. Hanly made a will dated October, 1869. This will was lost or hidden, and was later contested, but was declared valid, by the court, on April 15, 1874. At that time, his wife was Mary E. Handley. She was made executrix, and was to have the entire estate, during her natural life, after which, it was to descend to John S. Handley (or was it John S. Morgan?) From this, it is evident that John M. Hanley had a son, William W. Handley, who died, and his father, John M. Handley married second Mary E. —, but I found no record of either marriage. They could have been married in Gallipolis, or elsewhere.

† There were two Augustus A. Handleys. The first one was a son of John Handley Jr., who married Pressie Elder. This Augustus A. Handley married Minerva McGinnis of the Guyandotte section. They lived near Hurricane where they had a "house of entertainment," and probably kept a store. They are said to have lived near Winfield at a later date. He was a brother to Erastus S. Handley, and an uncle to John S. Handley, and Augustus A. Handley of Huntington.

Recently, I found among my papers, copies of several long letters written by Percival S. Brown, to me, in 1913. He was then more than ninety years old, and was living in California. He grew up on Beech Fork, near Bowen, and was rather prominent. I believe he was, at one time, a deputy sheriff, and had a wide acquaintance. He remembered "Gus" Handley, and said he was "a mighty fine man". The Census of 1850, showed that Mr. Handley, at that time, had but two children

In order to make this clear

William Handley probably married Margaret _____, and "lately came from Ireland", according to a record in Augusta County, found in a "Fee Book" dated ~~1866~~ 1767. They first came to Chester Co., Pennsylvania, then to Augusta Co., Vt. William Handley had a son, John Handley, ~~and~~ who married Mary Harrison, in 1768, and was a Revolutionary soldier.

John and Mary (Harrison) Handley had a son John Handley Jr., who married Pessis Elder, in Greenbrier County, in 1794.

John and ~~Mary~~ Pessis (Elder) Handley had a son, Erastus S. Handley who married Mary A. Gardner. Erastus S. and ~~Mary~~ Catherine A. (Gardner) Handley had a son John S. Handley who married Oretta (Shiveley) Handley. They had a daughter, Mary E. Handley who married William S. Morgan. They were the parents of J. Hanley Morgan ✓
